District Girl Awarded Scholarship in Boston

Miss Antoinette Simmons, 2420 Shannon place S.E., has been awarded a two-year post graduate scholarship to study medical social service work at Simmons College, Boston. It has been announced.

Miss Simmons, who was graduated last semester from Radcliffe College, attended Pollard and Dunbar schools in the District. In 1946, she won a scholarship to Radcliffe where she majored in languages and literature.

The Simmons College scholarship is a yearly award of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, according to Elwood H. Seal, chairman of the District chapter of the foundation.

Dr. Bradshaw Named Dean Of American U. Program

Dr. Mary E. Bradshaw, formerly of the faculty of Hunter College, has been appointed dean of the Washington semester program of American University. President Paul F. Douglass announced today.

This program enables junior students of nine colleges to attend American University for a semester in an inter-institutional plan of study designed to give them a chance to study in the Nation's Capital. Dean Bradshaw will be co-ordination officer for these students.

In addition to her administrative and teaching duties, Dean Bradshaw will serve as assistant to Graduate Dean Pitman B. Potter.

Dean Bradshaw is a graduate of Pennsylvania College for Women and the University of Wisconsin. She is a member of the American Association of University Women, the League of Women Voters, the American Historical Association and the League of Nations Association of New York City.

Dean Bradshaw.

DON'T YOU WISH YOU COULD SEE AROUND THE CORNER?

Just about everyone would like to know what's heading in his direction—today, next year, ten years from now.

No one can know, but the wise man prepares for tomorrow's troubles, today.

One safe, sure, easy way for you to anticipate tomorrow's troubles—and to plan for the things you've always wanted—is the Payroll Savings Plan of U.S. Savings Bonds.

The Payroll Savings Plan is safe because Uncle Sam stands behind every Bond.

It's sure because money is saved automatically—before you have a chance to spend it.

It's easy because you just sign up, get your Bonds, and wait for the profits to start climbing.

What better way is there to take care of the future, now?

Join your company's Payroll Savings Plan today. Or, if you're not on a payroll, drop in and sign up for the Bond-A-Month Plan at your bank.

Remember: $3 today mean $4 ten years from now—when you may need them more!

Barnes Named to Direct YMCA Member Drive

Norman H. Barnes, sales manager of the Potomac Electric Power Co., has been chosen to head the annual membership campaign for the central branch of the YMCA.

The drive will run from October 6 to November 3.

Mr. Barnes will head 200 volunteer workers being mobilized to obtain the highest goal in YMCA history —2,000 new and renewal members, 500 of which are to be boys.

Mr. Barnes is president of the Sales Executive Club of Washington. He was one of the founders, as well as director, of the course in salesmanship at Southeastern University. He is a World War I veteran and is past commander of the PEPCO Post 43 of the American Legion. He lives at 4722 Fifth street N.W.

Coffee Grown in Africa

Satisfactory results are reported from small-scale experiments in coffee growing in Africa's Guinea, Dahomey and Gold Coast regions.

Dear Mary,

You're so right about getting the children to eat vegetables. But I've turned the trick with a sauce you should try. To a cup of white sauce, just add ½ cup Lunch Box Spread. It's especially good on cauliflower, broccoli and string beans, and the kids love it.

Just between us girls, it's this same Lunch Box Spread which is the secret of my claim to fame for potato salad. Saves me cutting up pickles and relish, too, because they're already in it. And Lunch Box gives potato salad the extra pep and sauciness it needs.

Maybe I'd better explain that this Lunch Box I keep raving about is a sandwich spread—but a very unusual one because it's made only of real, pure mayonnaise with pickle relish and sweet peppers added. Needless to say, it's marvelous as a sandwich filling by itself, and I find I'm using it to flavor so many other foods we eat. You can get it at Safeway—but take my advice and get the quart jar. It's so good—it sure goes fast!

Kathy's looking forward to your visit. Says she'll cook you her special scrambled egg sandwich. She serves these hot on toast spread with spicy Lunch Box—and really, her Dad and I have to admit they're delicious.

Love, Helen

P.S. made exclusively with real mayonnaise
